GotBreastPump.com Frequently Asked Questions

- What inspired you to start your business? Having the difficulty of searching for the perfect place for information about breast pumping and becoming increasingly frustrated with the lack of the information caused me to put my ideas together and create a website for moms.
- What is your professional background? At Louisiana State University, I decided to complete my education with a BA in English, I took my degree and taught high school English for a number of years. After having my first baby, I decided that the stress and amount of time associated with teaching was too difficult, therefore, I completed a certificate in Graphic Design. After several years of working as a graphic designer, I continued my education by focusing on web programming. While working as a web programmer, I was able to combine my passion for breast pumping with my love for web programming and created GotBreastPump.com
- Do you assist with any charitable groups? Not only do I give time to various charitable organizations, I have organized my own public charity, which donates breast pumps to mothers in need, the Zachary Williamson Memorial Foundation.
- What is your favorite product? I definitely love the breast pump bra by Easy Expressions. I was lucky enough to find this while I was breast pumping and believe that it is the main reason why I was able to breast pump for over a year.
